A teacher orientation program was organized on date 7 July, 2023 at K. N. Bakshi College of Education. Dr. Binod Kr. Rai, Principal Shashwat Institute of Teacher Education was the chief speaker in the program. The program was organized in online mode via google meet and it commenced at 11:00 A.M. and all the teacher educators joined the program.

The main objectives of the program were to make new teachers aware of the curriculum and introduce its different aspects. Dr. Rai put his thoughts in great detail one by one on the entire part of B.Ed. curriculum. He explained all the papers of semester-I as per our University.

Semester – II has four papers of which an important part is observation class which lasts for 24 days in this relation he advised what and how to be done by the teachers and students each day. He explained how students are exposed to the activities of school on each working day while receiving training and hence teacher educators' responsibility is to know, understand and execute these activities during these days.

Similarly there is the provision of school Internship in semester – III of B.Ed. curriculum which lasts for 15 weeks. Here pupil-teachers prepare lesson plans every day and execute their plans in the classroom of school. Internship is regarded as the 'Soul' of B.Ed. course.

Dr. Binod Kr. Rai told that during school Internship lesson plans of pupil-teachers are supervised and feedback by teachers so that more qualitative improvement can be brought in the teaching skills of students. Many other changes have been made in the format of school internship in the two-year B.Ed. course, so that the progress of the students can be checked from time to time. Some examples are: - Achievement test, Intelligence test, Reading / Writing skill enhancement etc. So, teachers and pupil both have to be aware of the importance of this segment of curriculum.

Talking about semester-4, it was told by the chief speaker that this semester is very important from the point of view of improving the multifaceted personality of the trainees. There are many such papers in the form of optional papers in the final session which make the personality of a teacher complete.

In addition to guidance counselling, Yoga education, Human rights education, Women education, Adult education, Health & Physical education, this last semester contains two EPC subjects also. These subjects are important for students because of their role on personality development.

In this way the Keynote speaker of the teacher orientation program put various aspects of B.Ed. course among teacher educators in great detail and emphasized on other essential aspects in teacher education according to the changed environment and situation.

Before ending he also expressed his views on examination system, evaluation, assessment, continuous and comprehensive evaluation etc.

At the last of program, teachers solved their doubts by asking questions in question answer session.

The program ended with National Anthem. Stage Management was by assistant professor Pavan Kr. Suman and welcome speech was made by Principal Dr. Ajit Kr. Singh. Vote of thanks was by assistant professor Mr. Binod Kr. Suman.

On this occasion Principal Dr. Ajit Kr. Singh, Dr. Santosh Kr. Yadav, Dr. Rajesh Ravidas, Dr. Rajnish Kr., B.K.Suman, P.K.Suman, Rajeev Sharm, Ranjeet Kr. Verma, Reena Saw, Reshma Agarwal, Prakash Bardhan, Nitesh Kr., Nilesh Lakra, Shankar Singh, Dr. Praneet Kr. Thakur.
